LOW MARK ON WALL ST.

Record for Seventeen Years Set on Coonley Drug Store.

NEW YORK, July 12 .- Wall street had the dullest day's business Friday in 17 years. Transactions in stocks on the New York stock exchange amounted to but a little over 60,000 shares, the smallest day's business for a full day session since 1896, when business was at a low ebb prior to the McKinley-Bryan presidential election. Measured by the great increase in Wall street's facilities for speculation, it was the dullest day in a quarter of
